A project brought to you by Disability Advocates of Delaware

PLAYWRIGHT/COMPOSER: GEORGE PUREFOY TILSON

DIRECTOR: DON LONKSI

The disability community in Delaware is excited to announce the development of an original musical to be produced in Kent County in 2018! We are seeking talented actors, singers, dancers, puppeteers and musicians from around the state, to be a part of the show.

In addition to performers, we would love to hear from you if you have an interest in lighting, sound, set design, props, costumes and marketing for the show.

We are holding informational meetings about the show, on Wednesday December 7 and January 10 from 5:30-8 in Dover. Meetings will be held at Central Middle School 211 Delaware Ave. Dover. You will only need to attend one meeting. Please note: this is NOT an audition, however, if you have a performance resume or headshots available please bring them. Auditions will be held in early 2018.

If you are interested but cannot attend the information sessions please contact Wendy Strauss at wendy.strauss@gacec.k12.de.us or call the office at 302-739-4553.

Don Lonski

Don Lonski is an actor/director that has been involved in theatre since the mid 80's. He has performed on numerous stages in countless productions, several of which he also directed. He is one of the founders and President of Operations for Stanton's 4th Wall Theatre Troupe, but works with several community and professional theatre companies. Currently, Don is a Drama Professor at Wesley College.

George Purefoy Tilson

George Tilson is the playwright/composer for this project. He has also been a longtime friend of the Delaware disability community - through his work as an educational and workforce development consultant for the past 20 years.

In his theater life George has written shows that were produced in Washington, DC, Baltimore, and New York.
